Item	Docket	Company
8.	UT-060856

Description

The American Civil Liberties Union of Washington requests the Commission to investigate allegations that certain telephone companies in Washington released customer proprietary network information to the federal government in violation of law. Written and oral comments have been received. The Commission will consider this matter at the open meeting and decide whether to issue an order in this docket. NOTE: This item is deliberative only. Because of the earlier extensive opportunities for comments and responses, the Commission does not seek any additional written or oral comments.
